When the sun goes down, a different set of light brightens up the city. This tour takes you to an open air bazaar of Chinatown where it is liveliest in the evening, a Chinese temple and to cap the evening off with a sumptuous Malay dinner accompanied with a cultural show. The Thean Hou Temple is a landmark six-tiered Chinese temple in KL. This temple, built by the Hainanese community living in KL is dedicated to Goddess Thean Hou (The Heavenly Mother). This temple with elements of Buddhism, Taoism and Confucianism is a grandiose structure and represents a successful combination of modern architectural techniques and authentic traditional design featuring imposing pillars, spectacular roofs, ornate carvings and intricate embellishments. Take a stroll through this boisterous and festive open air bazaar of Chinatown's night market where watches, cheap textiles and bags are sold. You will find a common scene of locals and foreigners engaging in price bargains. We end the evening with a sumptuous buffet dinner at a popular restaurant where you can savour a wide array of local dishes and delights and at the same time be entertained with cultural performances and dances.

- Chinese tea drinking session
- Local shopping bag

HISTORICAL MELAKA (inclusive of lunch)

Departure: 0800 hours
Duration: Eight hours
Pick/Drop: Main entrance of the Kuala Lumpur Convention Centre
Minimum: Four persons on seat in coach (SIC) basis

Melaka is Malaysia's historical state. Many local battles were fought against our colonial masters here. When they left, they left behind a trove of what is to become historical buildings and landmarks synonymous to Melaka today. Visit St Peter's Church (1710), the oldest Christian church, believed to be the burial place of St Francis Xavier, a priest who won the hearts of the local villagers. Drive past Bukit China or Chinese Hill, the largest Chinese cemetery outside of China. Stop at the foothill to view the Sultan's Well before driving through the Portuguese Settlement. Visit the famous gateway, Porta De Santiago and the ruins of St Paul's Church lined with 17th century Dutch tombstones. Next on the list is Red Square, the salmon pink Dutch administrative buildings which today houses the Melaka Museum and government offices. Visit Christchurch before proceeding for lunch. Visit also the Abode Merciful Clouds or the Cheng Hoon Teng Temple, the only temple where you can find three major doctrines of local Chinese beliefs of Taoism, Buddhism and Confucianism. Take a stroll along Jonker Street, which houses rows of antique shops.

- Family serving lunch at the Peranakan Restaurant
- Trishaw ride (twin sharing)
- Local sweet basket
